

Chrystal Malapas, a registered Acupuncturist, has studied under and worked with Dr. Kasia Heigelmann in the past year. She was introduced to Meridian Therapy through Dr. Heigelmann.

Chrystal has always been interested in healthcare. She spent four years at the Ateneo de Manila University in the Philippines studying Biology under the Pre-Med Program. While exploring her options, she encountered Traditional Chinese Medicine. Her first acupuncture treatment was very successful and she has decided TCM is the field for her.

Chrystal studied Acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine at the Western Canadian Institute of TCM Practitioners in Richmond, BC and is attending PCU College of Holistic Medicine in Burnaby, BC. She is studying under the Dr. of TCM program while practicing acupuncture.
